

HKICPA seminar:

Doing Corporate Social Responsibility from Risk Management Perspectives

Programme Code: S140310S

Extreme weather caused by climate change occurs more frequent in recent years. Business executives who neglect the potential environmental threats could suffer more than financial lost. Companies should start thinking about how to operate sustainably and how these efforts could possibly become an opportunity to grow their business and build solid brand image.

In this seminar, the speaker will discuss:

- The importance of corporate social responsibility (CSR) and managing environmental threats to supply chain
- How these two could influence talents joining your company and reduce the impact to the supply chain when unpredictable disaster occurs
