Canada continues to be a popular destination for many Asian investors and has attracted many businesses from Hong Kong and China. While companies strategize their business plans and consider expanding into Canada, they should bear in mind some key Canadian tax concepts as well as specific tax opportunities. The presentation will provide an overview of Canadian tax implications and opportunities that businesses should take into account when considering an inbound investment into Canada and highlighting recent Canadian tax developments. In addition, the presentation will include important reporting requirements with respect to non-resident individuals investing or starting their business in Canada.

Chris and Vanessa are members of Deloitte's Asia Pacific International Core of Excellence (AP ICE), which is a core group of senior tax professionals that provides international tax services to Asia Pacific based companies investing abroad as well as multinational companies investing in the region. They specialize in assisting Canadian and Asian companies doing business together.
