About the programme

This is session one of the series of two seminars (session two is coming soon in July). Accountants are often the first people that corporate clients turn for advice when they are in financial difficulties. Careful handling of clients' affairs in such situations is extremely important so as not to jeopardise any chance of recovery and to avoid directors and officers incurring personal liabilities.

Topics covered:-

- issues arising from cost-cutting: laying off staff, termination of lease
- selling off assets and transfer of business to third parties and related companies
- repayment of debts - unfair preference and other voidable disposals

* Please refer here for descriptions of other competencies and ratings.
