HKICPA Webinar: Macro Hedge Accounting under IFRS 9

ABOUT THE WEBINAR

Have you started building an understanding of macro hedge accounting under the new model in IFRS 9? Do you understand the approach for accounting for dynamic risk management?

In this webinar, our speaker will discuss:

- The current status of the macro hedge accounting under the discussion paper Accounting for Dynamic Risk Management: a Portfolio Revaluation Approach to Macro Hedging which was issued in April 2014
- The main aspects of the macro hedge accounting model and how it would be applied to dynamic hedging strategies commonly used, including portfolio revaluation approach
- The main considerations to apply under the new macro hedge accounting requirements

WHAT IS WEBINAR

A webinar is a web-based seminar transmitted over the Internet. Simply by connecting to the Internet, a webinar eliminates the barrier of location and brings speakers and participants together via voice and document sharing. No physical venue at the Institute for webinar and therefore no travelling is required. It is held in a virtual classroom and has the ability to allow participants to ask questions throughout the webinar. It includes an audio presentation synchronized with powerpoint presentation, followed by a live Q&A session.

With its two-way interactive communication feature accessed in a convenient location, it will definitely suit your needs as a busy professional who would like to learn new things.
