Dear member,

2017 Council Co-option

In the last quarter of each year, an open invitation is sent to all members of the Institute encouraging them to volunteer their service as a co-opted member of the Council or a member of the Institute's committees for the coming year. Under the Professional Accountants Ordinance, Council may co-opt up to two members of the Institute to Council. The Nomination Committee and Council have completed the consideration of the nominations received at the end of 2016 for co-option to Council and filled one of the two available co-opted seats. Council wishes to fill the remaining seat and hereby issues another open invitation to all members for nominations for the seat.

Serving on the Council for the Hong Kong Institute of CPAs can be an enriching experience that enables you to increase your knowledge of the Institute and the profession, expand your business and personal networks and sharpen your leadership skills.

Members interested may complete the "Co-opted Council Member Nomination Form 2017" at http://app1.hkicpa.org.hk/membership/committee/Appointment2017/form_special.php and submit it online on or before Monday, 13 February 2017. The Nomination Committee will interview the nominees in the week commencing 20 February 2017 and make recommendations for further consideration by Council.

I look forward to your support to our Council work.

Yours sincerely,

Raphael Ding
