

A Guide to H Share Listings

Available at discounted price

A Guide to H Share Listings will help readers navigate through a matrix of PRC and Hong Kong laws, listing rules, practice guides, listing decisions, and general practice. It is organised thematically for ease of reference including: rationale for H share listing; legal requirements; and listing processes and drafting guidelines for preparing documents to be submitted to the Hong Kong regulatory bodies. It addresses frequently asked questions relating to H share listing with a focus on legal and regulatory requirements.

The Guide is written to be user-friendly, providing key questions and summary tables at the end of each relevant chapter. The presentation of facts is illustrated with charts, tables, and cases, making for easy reading and reference.

The Guide is extensively researched and footnoted referencing up-to-date primary and secondary materials for readers who would like to look further into a particular topic.

The Guide provides a bird-eye view of all major and practical questions related to H share listings with simple and easy to understanding instructions and explanations.
