ABOUT THE SEMINAR

This seminar will cover the key aspects of the revised auditor's report:

- Ms. Donohue will take the audience through the key changes to the auditor's report, in particular the implications for listed entities. She will explain 'key audit matters' (KAM) and the thought process for determining KAM. She will also touch on the interaction between KAM, modified opinion and going concern.
- Ms Tan will focus on the auditor's responsibilities relating to other information and the implications on the auditor's report. She will illustrate the key requirements through examples and practical considerations.
- In the panel discussion, representatives from the major accounting firms will share their experience and practical tips on how they work together with their clients to prepare for the change.
