

International Affiliates

The Institute admits International Affiliates, who are full members with voting rights of an International Federation of Accountants (IFAC) full member body. The International Affiliates will normally enjoy similar level of rights and benefits as the Institute's full members (except the rights to be elected to the Council, vote at Council elections and attend the Institute's general meetings).