

Dragon Boat Interest Group 2020 Team Representative Recruitment

The HKICPA dragon boat team is recruiting representatives for the 2020 season. Please register now!

You will discover that dragon boat is not only an excellent way of improving your physical fitness, but also your personal network and team spirit – all while having fun paddling together and sweating during exciting races. The Dragon Boat Interest Group (DBIG) has been nurturing many CPAs over its long history to become great paddlers – in fact some have gone on to become professional paddlers participating in local and overseas races.

If you are eager to further explore this popular traditional water sport, don't hesitate to enroll as team representatives. Newbies and experienced members are welcome. Training and competitions will be organized for the team.

Training schedule

- ✧ Early March to October (exact date to be announced)
- ✧ Every Sunday morning from 9:00-11:30 am*
- ✧ Location: Tseung Kwan O*

 Additional training may be arranged nearer the time of races at different locations.*

Members of the DBIG, including new players, will have the opportunity to be selected to represent the Institute in dragon boat races. The selection of team representatives, among other things, are mainly based on paddlers' performance, commitment, attitude, and team spirit, selection will be carried out by a panel comprising the coach and members of the DBIG organizing committee. Their recommendations will be considered by the management in consultation with the Sports and Recreation Committee Chairman.

Please enrol online by 29 February. Existing team representatives are also required to register for the new season.

2020 races schedule (representing the Institute)*
