Mr Alan Leung
Director, Investigation & Compliance
Accounting and Financial Reporting Council

Mr Alan Leung is Director of Investigation and Compliance at the Accounting and Financial Reporting Council (AFRC), where he leads investigations into possible misconduct of public interest entity (PIE) auditors, registered responsible persons, and professional persons, and enquiries into potential non-compliance with relevant accounting requirements in financial statements of PIEs in Hong Kong. Before joining the AFRC, Mr Leung was a partner as a leading international accounting firm with over 15 years of professional experience in the provision of audit, assurance, and regulatory advisory services to financial institutions. He is a member of the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants.
