Professional Standards and Quality Management
McGovern Hurley LLP

Kelly Khalilieh currently leads the Professional Standards and Quality Management group at McGovern Hurley LLP, a medium-sized firm in Toronto. She has extensive experience in the application of the requirements of ISQM 1, through having operational responsibility for the firm's system of quality management and various consulting and speaking engagements.

Ms Khalilieh also has several years of experience in standard-setting. She was previously the Director for the Canadian Accounting Standards Board and has held volunteer roles in support of standard setting, including serving as a current member of the Canadian Audit and Assurance Standards Board's Audits of Less Complex Entities Working Group.

Ms Khalilieh is also a member of the IFAC Small and Medium Practices Advisory Group and a Deputy Chair of CPA Ontario's Professional Conduct Committee.
