About the Information Session

The Institute has recently issued a consultation paper on proposed changes to auditing practices, inviting comments from members and stakeholders on the proposals to change the way the Institute licenses auditors that are aimed at raising audit quality. The proposals are a revision to some of the changes proposed in the consultation paper January 2009. The consultation period will end on 1 March 2010.

The purpose of the information session is to give members a highlight of the revised proposals and elaborate on the Registered Audit Practice mechanism proposed in the consultation paper. The information session will also provide members with an opportunity to raise any questions that they may have in relation to the proposals and express their views on the consultation paper.
