VILLA MARIA CELLAR SELECTION MARLBOROUGH PINOT NOIR 2013

"One of the world's 50 great wine producers."

- Wine Spectator

Many of you may be familiar with the Villa Maria property, most awarded New Zealand winery, founded by Sir George Fistonich in 1952. We picked for this month their Pinot Noir Cellar Selection from Marlborough region, the best region in New Zealand for this grape. Expect some crisp red berry notes on the palate, which brings a nice acidity and a long finish. Easy-drinking and complex at the same time, it pairs very well with roasted chicken, duck or strawberry pie.
