

Lifestyle series of events:

Entrance to the World of Wine

When it comes to business networking, sharing knowledge and experience on wine is always a good topic to start an engaging chat. The Young Members Committee of the Institute and the Young Group of The Hong Kong Institute of Chartered Secretaries jointly bring you this seminar at which the speaker will talk about the basics of wine tasting, wine region, grape varieties and more. Don't miss this good networking opportunity to meet other young professionals and enjoy an evening with fine wines.

The lifestyle series of events is a new initiative of Young Members Committee, aiming to help young members get prepared for small talks at business social occasions.
