

ForensIG Inaugural Spring Debate and Cocktail Event 2016

About the topic

The Forensics Interest Group (ForensIG) will be hosting its inaugural spring debate and cocktail event. The debate will cover the seemingly innocent yet very important business question of, "This house believes that corruption in business is a necessary evil". The panel of distinguished debaters will comprise, Jake van der Kamp, SCMP financial columnist, Angelina Kwan of HKEx, Jeff Lane of Tanner de Witt and the ForensIG management committee, and Rod Sutton of FTI Consulting. The chair will be held by Chris Fordham of EY and the ForensIG management committee. Following the debate, there will be time for drinks and networking to celebrate the Year of Monkey.

This will be an excellent opportunity to enjoy a lively and light-hearted debate, and network with fellow members and guests from the forensics and other fields in a more informal and relaxed atmosphere.
