Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants takes disciplinary action against a certified public accountant (practising)

(HONG KONG, 27 April 2016) - On 8 March 2016, a Disciplinary Committee of the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants reprimanded Chan Ying Kit (membership number F04219) for his failure or neglect to observe, maintain or otherwise apply professional standards issued by the Institute. The Committee further ordered Chan to pay a penalty of HK$50,000 and the costs of the disciplinary proceedings of HK$96,158.60.

Chan audited the financial statements of two Hong Kong private companies for the period ended 31 December 2010. In one of the audits, Chan failed to obtain sufficient evidence for a material expenditure. In the other audit, he failed to assess the adequacy of financial statement disclosure and obtain sufficient evidence to conclude the financial statements were free of material misstatements, regarding investments in two subsidiaries. The complaint was made under section 34 (1AAA) of the Professional Accountants Ordinance.

The Disciplinary Committee found that Chan was in breach of Hong Kong Standard of Auditing ("HKSA") 500 Audit Evidence and HKSA 700 Forming an Opinion and Reporting on Financial Statements.

Having taken into account the circumstances of the case, the Disciplinary Committee made the above order against Chan under section 35(1) of the Ordinance.

Under the Ordinance, if Chan is aggrieved by the order, he may give notice of an appeal to the Court of Appeal within 30 days after he is served the order.

The order and findings of the Disciplinary Committee are available at the Institute's website under the "Compliance" section at www.hkicpa.org.hk.

Disciplinary proceedings of the Institute are conducted in accordance with Part V of the ordinance by a five-member Disciplinary Committee. Three members of each committee, including a chairman, are non-accountants chosen from a panel appointed by the Chief Executive of the HKSAR, and the other remaining two members are CPAs.

Disciplinary hearings are held in public unless the Disciplinary Committee directs otherwise in the interest of justice. A hearing schedule is available at the Institute's website. A CPA who feels aggrieved by an order made by a Disciplinary Committee may appeal to the Court of Appeal, which may confirm, vary or reverse the order.

Disciplinary Committees have the power to sanction members, member practices and registered students. Sanctions include temporary or permanent removal from membership or cancellation of a practicing certificate with (where appropriate) an order that a practice certificate shall not be issued either permanently or temporarily, a reprimand, a penalty of up to $500,000, and payment of costs and expenses of the proceedings.
