Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants takes disciplinary action against a certified public accountant (practising)

(HONG KONG, 14 August 2017) — A Disciplinary Committee of the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants reprimanded Cheung Chun Bong (membership number A35716) on 4 July 2017 for his having been convicted of an offence involving dishonesty. The Committee further ordered Cheung to pay a penalty of HK$5,000 and costs of the disciplinary proceedings of HK$21,497.40.

Cheung was convicted in May 2016 at the Magistrates' Court of the offence of theft for having stolen another person's mobile phone at a restaurant. He notified the Institute of the conviction in accordance with his membership obligations. After considering the information available, the Institute lodged a complaint under section 34(1)(a)(ii) of the Professional Accountants Ordinance (Cap 50).

Cheung admitted the complaint against him. Having taken into account the circumstances of the case, the Disciplinary Committee made the above order against Cheung under section 35(1) of the ordinance.

Under the ordinance, if the respondents are aggrieved by the order, they may give notice of an appeal to the Court of Appeal within 30 days after he is served the order.

The order and findings of the Disciplinary Committee are available at the Institute's website under the "Compliance" section at <http://www.hkicpa.org.hk>.

Disciplinary proceedings of the Institute are conducted in accordance with Part V of the Professional Accountants Ordinance by a five-member Disciplinary Committee. Three members of each committee, including a chairman, are non-accountants chosen from a panel appointed by the Chief Executive of the HKSAR, and the other remaining two members are CPAs.

Disciplinary hearings are held in public unless the Disciplinary Committee directs otherwise in the interest of justice. A hearing schedule is available at the Institute's website. A CPA who feels aggrieved by an order made by a Disciplinary Committee may appeal to the Court of Appeal, which may confirm, vary or reverse the order.

Disciplinary Committees have the power to sanction members, member practices and registered students. Sanctions include temporary or permanent removal from membership or cancellation of a practicing certificate with (where appropriate) an order that a practice certificate shall not be issued either permanently or temporarily, a reprimand, a penalty of up to $500,000, and payment of costs and expenses of the proceedings.
