Dear Assignment/News/Business Section Editor

Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants takes disciplinary action against a certified public accountant (practising)

(HONG KONG, 10 October 2017) – On 1 September 2017, a Disciplinary Committee of the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants reprimanded So Kwok Keung, Keith (membership number F01702) and ordered him to pay a penalty of HK$60,000 and costs of disciplinary proceedings of HK$33,004.

So is a practising director of East Asia Sentinel Limited ("Practice"). While carrying out a practice review, the reviewer found significant deficiencies in relation to the Practice's audit of a Hong Kong listed company in respect of the valuation of convertible bonds. So was the engagement director who signed the auditor's report and therefore responsible for the quality of the audit engagement.

After considering the information available, the Institute lodged a complaint against So under section 34(1)(a)(vi) of the Professional Accountants Ordinance.

So admitted the complaint against him. The Disciplinary Committee found that So failed or neglected to observe, maintain or otherwise apply (i) Hong Kong Standard on Auditing ("HKSA") 230 "Audit Documentation"; and (ii) HKSA 500 "Audit Evidence".

Having taken into account the circumstances of the case, the Disciplinary Committee made the above order against So under section 35(1) of the Ordinance.

Under the Ordinance, if So is aggrieved by the order, he may give notice of an appeal to the Court of Appeal within 30 days after he is served the order.

The order and findings of the Disciplinary Committee are available at the Institute's website under the "Compliance" section at www.hkicpa.org.hk.

Disciplinary proceedings of the Institute are conducted in accordance with Part V of the Ordinance by a five-member Disciplinary Committee. Three members of each committee, including a chairman, are non-accountants chosen from a panel appointed by the Chief Executive of the HKSAR, and the other remaining two members are CPAs.

Disciplinary hearings are held in public unless the Disciplinary Committee directs otherwise in the interest of justice. A hearing schedule is available at the Institute's website. A CPA who feels aggrieved by an order made by a Disciplinary Committee may appeal to the Court of Appeal, which may confirm, vary or reverse the order.

Disciplinary Committees have the power to sanction members, member practices and registered students. Sanctions include temporary or permanent removal from membership or cancellation of a practicing certificate with (where appropriate) an order that a practice certificate shall not be issued either permanently or temporarily, a reprimand, a penalty of up to HK$500,000, and payment of costs and expenses of the proceedings.
