

Biography of the HKICPA President – Stephen Law, JP

Stephen Law, JP is the President of the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (HKICPA). He first served as a co-opted Council member in 2010 and 2011, and elected Council member in 2012 to 2017, and since 2022. He was Vice-President of the Institute from 2024 to 2025. Mr. Law holds the CPA (practising) designation and is a Justice of Peace (JP), a member of the CPPCC National Committee, and has also been appointed by the Ministry of Finance in Chinese Mainland as an expert consultant, proactively serving society with his profession.

Mr. Law has actively contributed to the development of the accounting profession through his leadership and participation in a wide range of HKICPA committees and groups. He is currently the Chairman of the Branding and Communication Committee, member of the Executive Committee, the Audit Committee, the Corporate Finance Committee and the Nomination Committee. He also participated in over ten committees and panels of the Institute, including chairing the Corporate Finance Committee and the Professional Accountants in Business Committee.

Mr. Law is the Managing Director of ZhongYi Investment Managers Limited. He is a multi-skilled business and finance professional with expertise in executive management at board and C-level of large enterprises. He also has extensive experience in private equity and asset management.

He was previously an Executive Director of MTR Corporation Ltd (MTR) responsible for finance, investment control, treasury, investor relations, information technology and materials & stores. He was instrumental in leading the team to assist the Government to resolve the over-budget issue of the High-Speed Rail Construction Project. Prior to MTR, Stephen was a managing director of TPG, one of the world's largest private equity firms, responsible for private equity investments in Asia. During his service in TPG, He was leading key deals across different industries and also executed many successful IPOs in HK, US and Vietnam. Besides, Mr. Law was a director of Morningside Ventures and focused on corporate finance and development for the Wheelock and Wharf Groups.

Mr. Law advocates good corporate governance and Environment, Social and Governance (ESG). He is a Deputy President of the Hong Kong Independent Non-Executive Director Association and the chair of its Corporate Governance Committee. He is a member of HKSAR Green Tech Fund Assessment Committee. Also, he is an independent director of few companies listed in Hong Kong.

Mr. Law also contributes to the society in other fields in addition to finance, accounting and investments. He is a board member of Hong Kong Cyberport, Hong Kong Dance Company, a member of the Agricultural Park Advisory Committee, a board member of the University of Birmingham Hong Kong Foundation Limited, and a board member of SOW Asia. He was an Adjunct Professor of The Hong Kong Polytechnic University, and a member of the Investment Task Force of the Construction Industry Council.

Mr. Law holds a bachelor's degree in science from the University of Birmingham, the United Kingdom and received a master's degree in business administration from the University of Hull, the United Kingdom.