Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants takes disciplinary action against a certified public accountant (practising) and a firm

(HONG KONG, 9 November 2018) A Disciplinary Committee of the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants reprimanded Mr. Leung Kin Sun, Sunny (A08842) and Sunny Leung & Company (1105) (collectively "Respondents") on 2 October 2018 for their failure or neglect to observe, maintain or otherwise apply professional standards issued by the Institute. The Disciplinary Committee further ordered the Respondents jointly pay a penalty of HK$80,000 and costs of disciplinary proceedings of HK$60,956.

Leung is the sole proprietor of Sunny Leung & Company which expressed an unmodified auditor's opinion on the financial statements of Ting Wai Monastery Limited, an approved charitable institution, for the year ended 31 March 2009. The audit procedures contained deficiencies relating to audit materiality, related party transactions, bank confirmations and certain income and expenditure items. The Respondents also failed to adequately document communication with those charged with governance on some audit issues.

After considering the information available, the Institute lodged a complaint under section 34(1)(a)(vi) of the Professional Accountants Ordinance (Cap 50).

The Disciplinary Committee found that the Respondents were in breach of Hong Kong Standard on Auditing (HKSA) 260, HKSA 320, HKSA 500, HKSA 550, HKSA 580 and the fundamental principle of Professional Competence and Due Care in sections 100.4(c) and 130 of the Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants.

Having taken into account the circumstances of the case, the Disciplinary Committee made the above order under section 35(1) of the ordinance.
