Indication of Interest for the Optional Mock Examination*

I would like to take the mock examination on Sunday, 18 May 2008.

 HKBU will charge HK$480 for candidates opt for the mock examination. Payment will be collected by HKBU after commencement of the Revision Course.

Notes to Applicants

- Application is on a first-come-first-served basis. A duly completed application form, together with a cheque for HK$2,720 payable to "Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants" (with your full name and student registration number written on the back of the cheque), must reach the Institute's Student Education & Training Department by post on or before 27 March 2008. Candidates interested in taking the optional mock examination, however, must pay the extra fee of $480 to HKBU directly no later than 13 April 2008.
- Applicants accepted for the course will receive a confirmation slip on or before 1 April 2008 whilst those who are unsuccessful will receive a rejection slip and their returned cheque. Students must bring the confirmation slip when attending the class.
- Applicants who have not received notification of enrolment by 3 April 2008 should call the Institute's Student Education & Training Department (2287 7236 or 2287 7099).
- The Institute reserves the right to change the venue and lecturers of the course if deemed necessary. The course fee will be refunded to the applicant in case the course is full or cancelled. However, no refund of course fee will be made for those candidates who enrolled conditionally for the final examination but subsequently did not pass the qualifying module(s).
