

HKICPA workshop: Business Enterprise: Mapping the Business Planning

Programme Code: W141113S

The Need for Business Planning: the past is only history and cannot be a role model for the future, nothing is the same as it was (and mostly within living memory). The role that finance people must play in the businesses of today is essential in securing its corporate future.

Accountants must move beyond financial control data to providing essential activity information and decision-making support. In this workshop delegates will learn how to work with data from across the business to check, validate and guide the planning processes, from envisioning through forecasting to action planning.
