

Advanced Negotiation and Bargaining Skills for Finance Professionals (re-run)

Programme Code: W120917S

Most people find that effective negotiations help their everyday lives both at work and personally. However, research shows that a lot of people are negotiating with counterparties purely on the facts and wants but not applying solid skills, tactics and strategy. This significantly reduces the negotiation power and affects the end-result. In particular, people do not know when to turn off the negotiation.

Those who have mastered their negotiation skills with in-depth tactics and strategies increase the chance of success. This workshop is specially designed for professionals who had acquired skills and techniques from the Institute's previous workshops "Effective Negotiation and Bargaining Skills for Finance and Accounting Professionals" or those who wish to further master their negotiation skills.

This workshop will cover:

- Negotiation tactics and counter-tactics
- Advanced negotiation strategy
- Real-life simulated role-play (with instant feedback from the trainer) to put techniques acquired into practice

Date Monday, 17 September 2012
