

HKICPA Seminars – Business Leaders Series (July 2016)

Corporate Culture and Governance - Healthy Trees Mean Less Bad Apples

The latest seminar under the Business Leaders Series will feature Mr. Richard Lancaster, CEO of CLP Holdings Limited.

Launched last year, the series invites business leaders inside and outside the accounting profession to share their insight and experience in driving business success, and their perspectives on broader business and social issues.

CLP is one of the best known corporate brands in Hong Kong. It epitomizes success in many ways, such as its operational excellence as a highly reliable supplier of electricity to a large part of Hong Kong and its entrepreneurial spirit in seeking opportunities outside of Hong Kong – reaching out to the Mainland, Australia, India, Southeast Asia and Taiwan. CLP also challenges the traditional view of family businesses, serving as standard bearer for Hong Kong in implementing high standards of corporate governance and sustainable business practices and, more recently, by adopting integrated reporting.

In this seminar, Mr. Lancaster will share the role of board and senior management in setting, monitoring and enforcing a “right” culture; and how and why the company has continued to be at the forefront of good corporate governance in Hong Kong.
