Dear MBIG Member,

Mainland Business Interest Group Circular (Issue 9/2006)

1. HKICPA/HKTDC joint seminar on "Mainland Labour Law (I)" (20 June 2006)

A HKICPA/HKTDC joint seminar on "Mainland Labour Law (I) " will be held on 20 June. Officials from the Guangdong Provincial Labour and Social Security Department (廣東省勞動和社會保障廳) will provide an update on the regulations relating to recruitment, employment contract, social security, labour disputes, etc. in the Mainland. The admission fee is $200 and 2 CPD hours will be awarded. A flyer containing the details is attached for your attention. If you are interested, please complete and return the enrolment form to the HKTDC on or before Tuesday, 13 June 2006.

Please also watch out for the second part of this series tentatively scheduled for September which will discuss the impact of the Labour Law on the foreign investment and the practical issues in dealing with employment relations.

2. Workshops on PRC Accounting, Auditing, Taxation, Capital Market and Corporate Governance (July 2006)

This 39-hour programme will be held over seven Saturdays between 8 July and 19 August 2006. The course is designed for CPAs wishing to acquire a comprehensive understanding of the PRC investment environment. Professors and lecturers from the Hong Kong Polytechnic University and Lingnan University will give you an overview on the current PRC accounting, auditing, tax, capital market and corporate governance issues. If you are interested, please complete and return the enrolment form to the Institute on or before Monday, 26 June 2006.
