About the programme

Positive thinking does not promise success, but there is no success without it. When it comes to the fundamentals of vocational guidance, nothing essential has changed for 2,000 years and here are some of the highlights:

| | |
|------------------|---|
| Aristotle: | “Where your talent and the needs of the world cross, there lies your vocation.” |
| Rumi: | “Everyone has been made for some particular work and the desire for that work has been placed in every heart.” |
| Joseph Campbell: | “Finding your own trajectory.” |
| Carl Jung: | “Individuation.” |
| Laurence Boldt: | “The word career comes from the Latin carrus, meaning ‘a wheeled vehicle’. The point of any vehicle isn’t so much the thing itself, but where you can go with it and how it feels when you’re in it. A beautiful car without a battery isn’t going anywhere. An expensive but cramped sports couple may look great but leave you with a sore back or stiff neck.” |

If you are stressing out or spinning your wheels in a job that leaves you flat, it may be time to find a better way or chart a new course. The objective of this workshop is to encourage fellow accountants to experiment, take-risk, open up and conduct cross-system thinking in their career.
