 - Individuals who have completed the professional examinations ("graduates") of an accepted accountancy institute as listed in Note 3.1.
 - Students of an accepted accountancy institute as listed in Note 3.1.
- 3.3 Full members of the following institutes are exempt from the HKICPA AT requirement for membership admission purposes:
 - CPAA (only applicable to CPAA members applying for HKICPA membership under the transitional arrangements of the old Mutual Recognition Agreement which expired on 30 June 2005.)
 - Institute of Chartered Accountants in England & Wales

THE EXAMINATION

- 4. Candidates are required to attempt the following two papers in the AT:
 - Hong Kong Law; and
 - Hong Kong Taxation.
- Candidates may choose to sit the two papers OR just one paper at each sitting. The Council rules that subject-by-subject passes are allowed and that there is no time limit restricting the validity of such passes.
- 6. For individuals who have sat and passed the relevant paper(s) in the HKICPA Practising Certificate Examinations, HKICPA accredited accountancy programmes offered by tertiary institutions, Hong Kong Association of Accounting Technicians Examinations and/or HKICPA professional examinations as listed in the Appendix, they may transfer their examination results acquired from the examinations/programmes to meet the AT requirement.
- 7. The examination for each AT paper, comprising multiple-choice questions and totalling 100 marks, will last for 1 hour 45 minutes in a close-book format.
- 8. Examination syllabuses are obtainable from the Institute upon request or from its website at: www.hkicpa.org.hk/membership/registrationmatters/registration/rma/aptitude_test.php for reference.

Candidates will also be advised of the examination syllabus and reading guide of the paper(s) enrolled after their applications have been accepted.

Candidates are required to produce the Docket for admission to the examination centre and observe the regulations and guidelines therein.
- 14. NO overseas examination centre is provided. Candidates are required to take the AT in Hong Kong.

EXAMINATION ASSISTANCE MATERIALS

- 15. A sample paper for the AT paper enrolled will be available free-of-charge to candidates after their enrolment is accepted.
- 16. Tax rate/allowance table will be provided in the question booklet for the paper Hong Kong Taxation.
- 17. NO examination assistance seminar will be organised for candidates.

EXAMINATION RESULTS

- 18. The pass requirement is a minimum of 50 per cent of the AT.
- Examination results will generally be sent by ordinary post to candidates around 10 weeks after the examination.
- 20. NO APPEAL for the examination results will be accepted.

FEES

- 21. The entry fee for each AT paper is HK$750.
- 22. Examination fee(s) paid are NOT refundable and NOT transferable.
- 23. An administration charge in addition to the entry fee(s) will be levied on those candidates who have submitted their examination entries after the enrolment deadline. Late entries will only be accepted subject to the availability of examination centres.

SUBMISSION OF ENTRY FORM

- 24. In addition to the completed Entry Form and appropriate fee(s), candidates are required to furnish the Institute with a copy each of their Hong Kong identity card/passport and documentary evidence certifying their professional status as specified in section IX Qualifying Status of the Entry Form.
 - All photocopies should be certified by a member of the Institute or a legal practitioner. As an alternative, candidates may bring along the original and a photocopy of the document for certification at the Institute's service counter. Failure to submit the required documents may result in delay in the enrolment process.
- 25. All information provided in the Entry Form, including supporting documents, will be used for the purposes relating to the administration of the Professional Accountants Ordinance and Professional Accountants By-laws.

CHANGE OF CORRESPONDENCE ADDRESS

26. IT IS IMPORTANT for candidates to notify the Membership Section of the Institute of any change in correspondence address or other contact details by quoting the reference as "HKICPA Aptitude Test" such that examination materials and results can be delivered promptly to them.
