

Career Conference:

The Many Faces of CPAs in the Capital Market

The Hong Kong capital market has experienced significant growth over the past 10-15 years, which makes it become a major international financial centre and premier capital market for fund raising. Are you interested in knowing more about the career opportunities for professional accountants in the capital market?

Join this year's career conference for young members to learn the different roles played by CPAs in the capital market, from both the practising and the business sectors. A panel of speakers, including chairman of a listed company, investment banker, as well as experts in corporate restructuring, insolvency and risk advisory will share their experiences in career development. Recruitment consultants will also provide updates on job market outlook and tips on career planning for young CPAs.
