

Members' Forum for Young Members

About the forum

The Institute organizes members' forum to apprise young members of the developments of topical issues, both international and local, and the work of the Institute and the Young Members Committee. Members' views will also be sought regarding the challenges faced by young members and how the Institute could better serve them at the questions and answers session.

At this forum, participants will receive updates and have the opportunities to directly give their views on the services currently or expected to be provided by the Institute, including the following:-

- Latest developments of the accounting profession
- Institute's services to young members
- Outreaching through social media
- Mentorship Programme
- Financial Controllership Programme
- Member Activities System
