

Current challenges for insolvency practitioners across the world (including a comparative look at liquidators' remuneration)

About the topic

At this seminar we will hear about the developing role of insolvency practitioners in different parts of the world and in particular the current issues affecting liquidators' remuneration, covering such matters as:

- How has the profession adjusted to the changes in the approval process, relevant rules and regulations, etc. over the last 10 years?
- What practices are doing to comply with the new rules and the expense associated with this?
- What are the latest developments on this front?
