

Music Appreciation Night

24 November 2015

Appreciation for the beauty of classical music will bring interesting effects to one's brain which is conducive to maintaining physical wellness. To name a few, it can help you to relieve stress levels; lower blood pressure, fight depression, improve sleep quality and enhance mental alertness and memory.

The Institute is pleased to have Ms Stella Leung who was majored in music therapy to come to talk to members on:

- ✧ What is classical music?
- ✧ How classical music can help soothe busy professionals like you?

It will be an interactive talk with demonstration by excerpts from great composers like Mozart, Chopin and Bach. Ms Leung will share with you her experiences with classical music followed by a summary of the various types of compositions and brief comments on some major composers.

Sign up NOW to enjoy a relaxing evening with other fellow members who appreciate classical music like you.
