

HKICPA seminar: China and Asia Pacific Economic Compass: Risk and Opportunity

Program Code: S161024S

With the latest regional growth moderation, slowing global trade and tightening global financial conditions, 2016 and upcoming year are set to be challenging to all. In a recent survey Coface conducted to examine corporate payment trends in 8 selected markets across the Asia-Pacific region: Australia, Mainland China, Hong Kong, India, Japan, Singapore, Taiwan and Thailand, 70% of the companies surveyed experienced overdues in 2015 with no improvement compared to 2014.

In this seminar, the speaker will share her views on:

- What is China's "new normal" and what are the spillover implications of China's rebalancing for trade and inequality in the region?
- Which sector are most "zombie companies" located in China, and then what's next?
- Are Southeast Asia countries still showing high development potential in the Asia-Pacific region? Which country has the worse payment experience?
- Which specific sector is the most risky across the region in the upcoming future? And what is Coface's take on the subject as a global credit insurer?
- What is the most effective action in case of non-payment across the region?
