Restructuring and Insolvency Faculty (RIF)

Lunch Seminar -

Impact of the financial crisis in Asia

About the Seminar

It will be a broad ranging talk that will explore the rapidly deteriorating financial conditions within the region, and assess how value can best be recovered. Particulars that will be covered are:

- a) Problem jurisdictions
- b) Types of problem credits including defaulting bonds, leveraged acquisitions, hedge funds and joint ventures
- c) Exit solutions for distressed credits

About the Speaker

Mr. Neil McDonald has been involved in a wide range of matters in Asia and Australia, in respect of the restructuring and insolvency of distressed companies. He specialises in PRC related insolvencies, restructurings, asset recoveries and exit solutions, and acts for commercial and investment banks, insurance and reinsurance companies, insolvency appointment holders, turnaround management firms, hedge funds and private equity firms.

Mr. McDonald has extensive experience in banking and finance litigation having acted for a number of banks and other financial institutions over the past 10 years. He has particular expertise in litigation involving distressed companies and secured property, including applications for the appointment of liquidators, provisional liquidators and receivers and managers. He also has extensive experience in the investigation of corporate and commercial fraud and breaches of fiduciary and common law duties by directors, officers and advisers to collapsed companies.

Mr. McDonald also has extensive experience in insurance and reinsurance including statutory solvency requirements; reinsurance recoveries; the structuring, use and legality of financial reinsurance; general regulatory issues relating to the operation and solvency of insurance and reinsurance companies; and all aspects of claims development and management.
