

HKICPA seminar: Cyber Risk – Data Privacy and Network Security

Program Code: S160901AS

With the rapid development of technology in recent years, companies are now much more concerned about cyber security and the impact of cyber risks on business. In this seminar, experts from legal, IT forensic and insurance risk management professions will:

- Highlight cyber risks to businesses, in particular to the accounting profession
- Outline recent developments and trends in the cyber risk landscape in Hong Kong and across Asia
- Explore cyber risk transfer solutions across traditional policies and stand-alone cyber products
- Share real cases and hold a panel discussion

Date Thursday, 1 September 2016

Speakers Mr. Andrew Mahony, Regional Director, Financial Services & Professions Group, Aon Risk Solutions, Specialty Broking, Asia

Mr. Mahony is responsible for the development of Aon's cyber risk practice in Asia, continuing its thought leadership in cyber risk transfer in the region. He works closely with clients to help them understand their cyber exposure and negotiates bespoke policy offerings with underwriters to ensure Aon's clients procure the required cover. Before joining Aon in Singapore in 2015, Mr. Mahony was a Senior Associate at Sparke Helmore, a leading Australian insurance law firm. As a lawyer, Mr. Mahony provided coverage advice to major insurers and defended third party claims across financial lines.

Mr. Antony Sassi, Partner, Smyth & Co in association with RPC

Mr. Sassi is a leading litigator in the Hong Kong market. He focuses on insurance and reinsurance disputes, and acts on a range of contentious and non-contentious insurance matters including policy drafting, corporate and regulatory advice, claims handling and coverage advice. Mr. Sassi advises insurers on issues, including professional indemnity and financial lines, property and business interruption and product liability. He deals with a broad range of large scale disputes in London, Bermuda, Hong Kong and China and he has also assisted with drafting policies in various classes of insurance business for use across Asia.

Mr. Alan Jeffries, Managing Director, D3Forensics Limited

Mr. Jeffries is a data forensic and litigation support practitioner with 21 years of experience in Asia. He has experience in designing data forensic strategies for multi-jurisdiction data collections, analysis and presentation.
