About the programme

An introduction will be given on the commonly used demographic, social and economic statistics of Hong Kong, which are regularly compiled and published by the Census and Statistics Department of the Hong Kong SAR Government, such as population data, price indices, Gross Domestic Product (GDP), trade statistics, income data and labour cost statistics. The definitions and methods of compilation of the statistics will be briefly explained. The application of the statistics for analysis and planning purposes in business will also be discussed.
