

HKICPA workshop: Improving Financial Reporting Quality – Key Findings from Regulators

Programme Code: W150511S

Financial reporting quality is always a hot topic for market participants and regulators. In recent years, regulators work very keen on monitoring programmes towards listed companies and their auditors. This seminar aims to provide market participants with an understanding on up-to-date Hong Kong regulatory practices and key findings identified by various regulators in order to help market participants to minimize their risk exposures in dealing with these monitoring programmes conducted by regulators.
