

CPD Seminars – Business Leaders Series (October 2015)

Changes in China over the past 30 years – perspective from a seasoned Hong Kong executive

Starting from October 2015, the Institute is launching the Business Leaders Series of seminars to feature business leaders inside and outside the accounting profession. Experts are invited to share their insight and experience in driving business success, and their perspectives on broader business and social issues.

For the inaugural seminar under the series, we have invited Mr. YK Pang, Chief Executive of Hongkong Land Holdings and Chairman of the Hong Kong General Chamber of Commerce, to be the speaker. Mr. Pang plays an active role in Hong Kong's business community and public service arena. He joined the Jardine Matheson Group in 1984 and over the past 30 years has spent a significant amount of time in the Mainland for professional and business purposes. He will share his experiences and observations of the development and changes in the Mainland over the past three decades and discuss why Hong Kong needs to work better with the Mainland under "One Country Two Systems".
