HKICPA, HKVCPEA and ASrIA are combining to present a Seminar focused on the environmental and social challenges of investment in China. The event will provide practical advice and insights on how to identify material risks and opportunities associated with these issues and how to add value to your investments.

29 September 2008 (Monday) Date:

Venue: The American Club, 49/F Exchange Square Two, Central, HK

Time: Registration 5:30 pm

> Talk 6:00 - 7:00 pm Cocktails 7:00 - 8:00 pm

Environmental and Socially Responsible Investment: Topic:

An Opportunity or an Illusion?

- What are the criteria and how to source deals
- · How to address key issues in the local context
- An example of a portfolio company

Speaker: Hauman Yeung, whose work for a private equity fund in China, was focused on identifying and managing a wide range of environmentally and socially responsible investments.

With a rapid growth in the number of environmental and socially oriented funds investing in the region, and with rapidly developing themes around legislation, climate change, clean-tech, alternative energy, disclosure and other related issues, this seminar will provide a not to be missed opportunity on how to develop, manage and profit from effective investment strategies.
