

Professional Diploma in Insolvency 2013-2014

Congratulations to the 13 candidates who have successfully completed the Professional Diploma in Insolvency 2013-2014. Graduates may now use the titles SQ (Insolvency) and 專項文憑(破產重整) after their names in recognition of their achievement of the Specialist Qualification. The pass rate was 65 percent. A graduation ceremony was held on 29 October 2014 where Certificates of Completion and Awards for Outstanding Achievement were presented.

Top Students of Professional Diploma in Insolvency 2013-2014

Carmen received the Award from Course Director Mr. Stephen Briscoe.

Ms. Carmen Yeung achieved the 1st place in the Professional Diploma in Insolvency 2013-2014. Carmen is a Senior Manager of the Restructuring Services team at KPMG.

"This programme is no doubt very demanding but it is truly useful to my career as an insolvency practitioner. The course directors, tutors and lecturers are all very experienced professionals who shared with us their experience and knowledge. This programme has allowed me to build a good foundation for my career so that I can be equipped and confident to face the upcoming opportunities and challenges in my career."

Carmen giving a speech at the ceremony.

Top Students of Professional Diploma in Insolvency 2013-2014

Catherine received the Award from Course Director Mr. Stephen Briscoe.

Ms. Catherine Read achieved the 2nd place in the Professional Diploma in Insolvency 2013-2014. Catherine is an Associate at Walkers.

Janice received the Award from Course Director Mr. Stephen Briscoe.

Ms. Janice Ng achieved the 3rd place in the Professional Diploma in Insolvency 2013-2014. Janice is a Legal Assistant at Watson, Farley & Williams in association with Lau, Leong & Co.