1. The Balvenie DoubleWood Aged 12 Years Speyside, Scotland 	Matured in two wood types. Over the period of maturation it is transferred from a traditional oak whisky cask to a first fill European oak sherry cask. Each stage lends different qualities to the resulting single malt - the traditional casks soften and add character, whilst the sherry wood brings depth and fullness of flavour.	$650.00	$520.00
2. The Balvenie Caribbean Cask Aged 14 Years Speyside, Scotland 	Matured in traditional oak whisky casks for 14 years, and then "finished" in casks that perviously held Caribbean rum. To create the ideal finish, Malt Master David Stewart filled American oak cask with his own blend of select West Indian rums. When the casks re ready, the rum is replaced with 14 year-old spirits and the wood is put to work to add the final touches. An exceptional single malt whisky with the traditional smooth, honeyed character of The Balvenie, married with notes of toffee and a hint of fruit, with a warm, lingering finish.	$1,098.00	$878.00
3. The Balvenie DoubleWood Aged 17 Years Speyside, Scotland 	A return to one of Malt Master David Stewart's most celebrated achievements - consecutive mauturation in two diferent types of casks, a process often referred to as 'cask finishing'. This technique is at the heart of The Balvenie DoubleWood - it sees the whisky matured first in American oak barrels, which impart soft sweet vanilla notes, before being transferred to European oak sherry casks, where the second cask ageing adds rich spicy flavours and a dept the fullness of flavour.	$1,920.00	$1,536.00
