Butterworths Hong Kong Company Law Handbook - 13th Edition

General Editor: ELG Tyler

Butterworths Hong Kong Company Law Handbook (13th Edition) provides an authoritative guide to the latest developments in the rapidly evolving area of Company Law and practice in Hong Kong. This handbook makes available in a convenient form the full text of the Companies Ordinance (Cap 32) together with section-by-section annotations. The annotations include amendment notes, carefully researched case authorities, expert commentary and other authoritative material presented in a concise and succinct style. In addition, cross-references are made to subsidiary legislation and to tables and forms where necessary. It is a testament to how far company law has progressed from the core principles of English equity and the United Kingdom Companies Act 1862.

The thirteenth edition also includes the Companies (Winding-up) Rules and forms. This handbook is the most informed and handy guide available to the area of Hong Kong company law and lays out all information ever likely to be required on the Ordinance. This series has been cited with authority in numerous court cases in the Hong Kong Court of First Instance, Court of Appeal, and Court of Final Appeal.

Since the last edition of this book, the Companies Ordinance (Cap 32) has been amended with changes made to Sections 2, 6, 9, 12, 14A, 15, 16, 18, 18A, 20, 21, 22, 22A, 22AA, 38AA, 57A, 99, 102, 109, 110, 129G, 141CH, 168BAA-168BAI, 168BA, 168BC-168BG, 168BJ, 227E, 265, 342AA, 346-346B, 348, 348BA, Schedule 1, Schedule 3, Schedule 12 and Schedules 17-22 of the Ordinance.

These amendments are incorporated in this edition so that it will serve as the most up-to-date reference guide for lawyers, in-house counsels, company secretaries, company directors, auditors, accountants, regulators, academics, students, and all those who are engaged or interested in the dynamic practice of company law in Hong Kong.

Corporate Governance and Compliance in Hong Kong

(Tentative Publication Date: January 2012)

Author: Gordon Jones

"Starting with a historical approach the author has traversed the intricacies of current laws and regulations and looked at the major issues surrounding corporate behavior. Some of what can be considered to be current ills may be cured and some may not. I commend this book to anyone who has dealing in corporate affairs. It will be informative and the definitive work on corporate governance in Hong Kong."

- Anthony Rogers, Former Chairman of the Standing Committee on Company Law Reform and Vice-President of the Court of Appeal

Corporate Governance and Compliance in Hong Kong is the definitive work for legal advisors, compliance officers, judges, regulators, government officials, business people, managers, stakeholders, academics and all other professionals who wish to know and understand the intricacies of Hong Kong's law relating to corporate governance.

This work consists on 30 chapters and useful appendices covering all areas of Corporate Governance and Compliance issues for practitioners. Chapters 1 to 8 are the introductory chapters on legal and regulatory framework and reform. Chapters 9 to 14 are dedicated chapters discussing all directors' duties and powers. Chapters 15 to 18 discuss company and corporate administration whilst Chapters 19 to 21 discuss shareholders' and their duties and powers. The rest of the work covers non legalese yet important areas of practice for example Chapters 22 to 24 covers Financial Reporting and Auditors, Chapter 25 on Corporate Social Responsibility, Chapter 26 on Ethical Governance and Chapter 27 on Not-For-Profit Entities and Public Bodies. The last part of the work covers more matters related to business acumen and future reform with Chapter 28 on Small and Medium Sized Enterprises, Chapter 29 on Professional Organizations and Chapter 30 on The Way Ahead.

Encyclopaedia of Hong Kong Taxation

Authors: Peter Willoughby, Andrew Halkyard

With the Encyclopaedia of Hong Kong Taxation, you will have at your fingertips the most comprehensive, authoritative and regularly updated reference on the taxation system in Hong Kong. While this work deals primarily with Hong Kong taxation matters, the authors have researched case law and legislation in many other jurisdictions, in particular Australia, Canada, Malaysia, New Zealand, Singapore and the United Kingdom. The work is therefore to a significant extent one of comparative tax law.

It is hoped that tax practitioners, academic lawyers and economists in jurisdictions other than Hong Kong will find the research helpful. Matters such as anti-avoidance legislation, both specific and general, are discussed in the context of developments in other jurisdictions as well as Hong Kong.

Features

- > Division I gives clear statements of general principles relating to stamp duty, estate duty or taxation of income in Hong Kong
- > Statutory provisions are reproduced for ease of reference
- > Lists of relevant definitions
- > Cross reference to other relevant statutory provisions
- > Historical note of amendments
- > Annotations which include discussion of relevant case law and references to other source materials
- > Useful forms are reproduced for easy reference
- > Practice Guides, Information Pamphlets and Directives are reproduced to provide readers with direct and easy access to materials which are located in diverse sources or are out of print.

Hong Kong Inland Revenue Handbook

Author: Nisha Mohamed

The annotated Hong Kong Inland Revenue Handbook is a concise reference work detailing section by section annotations to the Inland Revenue Ordinance (Cap 112), with the inclusion of details of amendments and repeals to the Ordinance. The Handbook also includes annotations to the Public Revenue Protection Ordinance (Cap 120) and Tax Reserve Certificates (Fourth Series) Rules (Cap 289A).

It covers all relevant Court and Inland Revenue Board of Review Cases decided not only in Hong Kong, but also in other common law jurisdictions. It also covers references to journal articles and changes made to the legislation.

Most notable recent cases decided include Yau and Robertshaw (taxation of housing benefits), Elliott (taxation of payment made on termination of employment), Poon Chau Nam (distinction between a contract of employment against independent contractor), HIH Finance and Tai Hing Cotton (application of Sections 61 and 61A).

Other revised areas include home loan deduction, right to apply for personal assessment and foreign decisions on perceived tax avoidance. Reference is also made to the Inland Revenue Department's Departmental Interpretation and Practice Notes.

Forensic Accountancy 2nd Edition

Author: Benny KB Kwok

Forensic Accountancy 2nd Edition provides a comprehensive insight into many principles and practices in the forensic field and demonstrates how accountants and financial professionals should do their jobs when acting as experts, advisors or investigators in disputes, fraud investigations or legal proceedings.

This book has been written in concise English, without the unnecessary use of jargon, catering for the needs of those untrained in the subject and bridging the gap between the legal aspects and the accounting/ financial aspects of litigations. Litigators, regulators, surveyors, contractors, reporters and loss adjusters will find this book as an avenue to the unseen world of accountancy revealing the untold truth and evidence behind the numbers and flows of funds/ transactions.

The addition of two completely new chapters to the hugely successful first edition sets a benchmark for those in this niche profession and aims to form a blueprint for mandatory standards in the near future.
