

Professional Accountants in Business (PAIB)

Public Sector Focus Group Discussion – Balancing Profit Optimisation and Public Interest

The professional accountants in business leadership panel (PAIBLP) has set up different industry focus groups to enable members working in those sectors to share their experience, common interests and concerns.

At this public sector focus group gathering, Mr. Quinn Law, former deputy chairman and managing director of the Urban Renewal Authority (URA) will share some of the insights that he gained from his tenure in URA and exchange views with members on the theme of balancing profit optimisation and public interest in the public sector.

About the speaker: Mr Quinn Law Yee-kwan completed his professional training with a Big-4 accounting firm. After serving the then Securities Commission in Hong Kong and two international shipping companies, in 1983, he joined a major Hong Kong listed conglomerate engaged principally in property investment and development. Mr Law took up different positions in the group, including corporate, finance, administration and operational. In October 2005, Mr. Law was appointed an executive director of the Urban Renewal Authority. For five years to February 2013, he held the position of deputy chairman and managing director of the Authority. Mr. Law is currently a Council member of the Hong Kong University of Science and Technology as well as the chairman of its Audit Committee. He is also a member of the Advisory Board of Accounting Studies of the Chinese University of Hong Kong. He has been a member of the Institute since 1978 and has served on a number of its committees, such as the PAIB and corporate governance committees.
