

Directors' duties and the availability of indemnity provisions

About the topic

At this seminar, Shaun Folpp, partner, Mourant Ozannes and head of the firm's litigation practice in Asia, will speak on issues relating to directors' duties from an offshore perspective, including:

- The duties owed by directors.
- The origin, nature and scope of directors' duties and the steps that need to be taken by directors in order to properly discharge their duties.
- Different roles undertaken by directors within a company and the effect those differences have on duties (for example, executive directors vs. non-executive directors)
- The availability and effect of indemnity provisions.
- Conduct and losses that cannot be indemnified against.
- Proceedings against directors: common pitfalls, hurdles, and practical tips.

About the speaker

Shaun Folpp, Partner, Mourant Ozannes

Shaun is head of the firm's litigation practice in Asia. Prior to relocating to Hong Kong Shaun was based in the firm's BVI office. Before joining Mourant Ozannes Shaun practiced in the Cayman Islands and worked at the Court of Appeal, London, where he was head of commercial and chancery appeals.

Shaun has extensive experience acting both for and against insolvency practitioners in all forms of external administrations, as well as acting for parties involved in general commercial, financial services and trust disputes. Shaun also has considerable experience in advising in relation to corporate governance matters, including in relation to directors' duties, in addition to the duties owed by trustees and general partners, and is often asked to provide expert evidence as to matters of BVI and Cayman Islands law in aid of foreign proceedings. He has been retained by some of the world's largest accounting firms, including Deloitte, Ernst & Young, KPMG and PwC, and regularly acts for investment funds, their service providers, and investors, and is involved in litigation at all levels before the courts of the BVI and Cayman Islands.

Over recent years Shaun has been involved in many of the largest offshore disputes and insolvencies including Fairfield Sentry, Saad and Algosaibi, Michael Kenwood Group, Arcapita Bank, Reserve International Liquidity Fund, as well as disputes following the collapse of Lehman Brothers, Bear Sterns and Madoff. He continues to act generally for the liquidators of the failed Weaving Macro Fixed Income Fund, including in relation to the proceedings brought against its directors, as well as for the liquidators of the two Kingate funds. More recently, Shaun has been retained on behalf of China Fishery Group to defend the petition proceedings brought against it seeking its winding up.

Shaun is included in each of the leading legal directories, including Legal 500, Chambers and Partners, Who's Who Legal, and IFLR.
