Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants takes disciplinary action against a certified public accountant

(HONG KONG, 26 August 2014) — A Disciplinary Committee of the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants reprimanded Chui Yiu Chung (membership number A31031) on 15 August 2014 for his failure or neglect to observe, maintain or otherwise apply a professional standard issued by the Institute, and ordered him to pay a penalty of HK$20,000 to the Institute. In addition, Chui was ordered to pay costs of the disciplinary proceedings of HK$14,681.

Chui had pleaded guilty to two charges and was sentenced to 80 hours of community service for his conviction of the offences of loitering and theft, contrary to section 160(3) of the Crimes Ordinance, Cap.200 and section 9 of the Theft Ordinance, Cap.210 respectively. Chui notified the Institute of the conviction in accordance with his membership obligations. After considering the information available, the Institute lodged a complaint against Chui under section 34(1)(a)(vi) of the Professional Accountants Ordinance.

Chui admitted the complaint against him. The Disciplinary Committee found that Chui failed or neglected to observe, maintain or otherwise apply paragraphs 100.5(e) and 150.1 "Professional Behavior" of the Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants for his failure to comply with relevant laws and regulations and avoid any action that discredits the profession when he took and duplicated the apartment keys of a female colleague and attempted to gain entry into that female colleague's flat.

Having taken into account the circumstances of the case, the Disciplinary Committee made the above order against Chui under section 35(1) of the ordinance.

Under the ordinance, if Chui is aggrieved by the order, he may give notice of an appeal to the Court of Appeal within 30 days after he is served the order.

The order and findings of the Disciplinary Committee are available at the Institute's website under the "Compliance" section at www.hkicpa.org.hk.

Disciplinary proceedings of the Institute are conducted in accordance with Part V of the ordinance by a five-member Disciplinary Committee. The majority (three members) of each committee, including the chairman, are non-accountants chosen from a panel appointed by the Chief Executive of the HKSAR, and the other two members are CPAs.

Disciplinary hearings are held in public unless the Disciplinary Committee directs otherwise in the interests of justice. A hearing schedule is available at the Institute's website. A CPA who feels aggrieved by an order made by a Disciplinary Committee may appeal to the Court of Appeal, which may confirm, vary or reverse the order.

The Disciplinary Committees have the power to sanction members, member practices and registered students. Sanctions include temporary or permanent removal from membership or cancellation of a practising certificate, a reprimand, a penalty of up to $500,000, and payment of costs and expenses of the proceedings.
