

Workshop on the new Companies Ordinance – implications on financial reporting

The new Companies Ordinance (Cap. 622) has become effective since 3 March 2014, bringing with it new concepts such as the abolition of par value and disclosure requirements that may have far-reaching accounting implications. This half-day workshop covers mainly the requirements of the new Companies Ordinance that has accounting implications. Topics include:

- Abolition of the par value of shares and its accounting implications
- Accounting treatment for reduction of share capital, share redemption or share buy-back
- Arrangements, amalgamation and compulsory share acquisition in takeover and share buy-back
- Financial statements disclosures
- Directors' report – Business review
