Please put an expected completion date (e.g. 31 August 2024) in the "Award Date" of your conversion programme. It should be a future date.

8. In Section 4, choose "Yes" for "Apply for exemption?" of each module and then fill in information of required courses under the accredited degree programme.

Note:

• You are NOT required to upload the course syllabus and mapping table in Section 8.

Warning:

- All input data will be lost if you revisit this section. You should ensure that the information is correct and completed before going to the next section.
- The Institute will perform the assessment solely based on the documents and information provided in this application. You may need to bear additional costs for any amendments after submission due to errors or omissions.
- Exemption will be granted only if the documents provided are sufficient. It is at the discretion of the Institute to grant module exemption.
- Exemptions of M9 (Principles of Taxation) and M10 (Business & Company Law) are not only limited to graduates who have completed Hong Kong tax and Hong Kong law subjects. Graduates who have studied and passed law and/or taxation subjects in a non-Hong Kong's regime may also be eligible for exemptions of M9 and/or M10 provided that these subjects have substantial coverage of the equivalent learning outcomes of M9 and M10.
